MEGA PROJECT HOPE: PAPUA NEW GUINEA p. 4

A VIEWER'S PRAYER p. 7

HOPE CHANNEL POSTER p. 8

Let us be the branches

Even before the plane landed, a sea of greens and blues welcomed me to a paradise of unexpected, incredible beauty. Everything in Papua New Guinea is an experience of the senses—the wonderful people, lively churches, food, birds, nature, and culture were exceptional. But one of the things that caught my attention was the trees.

There are about two thousand species of trees in Papua New Guinea—each distinct in shape and size. I was amazed at their size and the area they covered. It reminded me of what Joyce Kilmer says about trees:

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree...
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

There is a story in every tree, a lesson to be learned. Jesus told one such story in John 15: “I am the vine, you are the branches... Without me you can do nothing.” Only by growing in and with Jesus can we be authentic Christians. Like a branch connected to the tree trunk, our witness for Him depends on an intimate connection with Him.

The trees in Papua New Guinea also remind me of the quiet providential growth of Hope Channel’s global network. I was with a large group of seasoned Hope Channel producers who came from all over the world to provide intense training and help start the newest addition to the network—Hope Channel Papua New Guinea (see p. 4).

Like the silent imperceptible growth of a tree, the Hope Channel network is expanding and flourishing around the world. We began with one channel in 2003. By 2010 we had grown to 13 channels. Today there are 35 plus six more in development. Yet, we have just begun. We cannot rest until everyone everywhere receives God’s good news for a better life today and for eternity.

Around the world Hope Channel is rapidly growing as viewers like you share the blessings they’ve gained from our programs. Thank you for sharing Hope Channel with your family, friends, and neighbors.

And thank you for the “fertilizer” of your prayers and financial support that make Hope Channel grow. Without your commitment to the mission of Christ through our media ministry, this tree would not grow.

Trees grow to produce fruit. People will come to you in Heaven and thank you for supporting the channel that led them to God’s saving grace. You will be recognized as the instrument God used to save people from every nation, culture, and language.

Let us be those branches that Jesus talks about—authentic Christians, connected to Him, and bearing fruit for that Great Harvest when God will return to take us home.

Your friend,

Brad Thorp

What Viewers are Saying

I was once a fanatic sports fan. Now I am a fanatic Hope Channel fan. Thank you, God Almighty. The shows uplift my spirits more than any ball game.

—Daniel

I am writing from Afghanistan, but I am from Zimbabwe. I would like to thank you for the lessons you provide for us, we are truly blessed by them. Here we do not have churches, but I feel at home every time I watch Hope Channel.

—Anonymous

Hope Channel, in my imagination, is like the angels flying in the midst of Heaven having the everlasting gospel to preach to the whole world.

—Cutie

Thank you for the program, Go Healthy for Good. The doctors have taken us off ALL our meds after we began watching and learning what to put in our bodies.

—Rodney and Laurie

We told our new friends about Hope Channel. For weeks they promised to watch it, and finally they did! Just last week the husband said, "We are wearing out the channel." I told him that was impossible!

—Mary-Joe

I am 93 years old and can't get to church so Hope Channel is my lifeline.

— Betty

I caught your show because football was the only thing on and I was flipping through to find something else. My faith had faltered and I was becoming lost. I watched a couple of shows on another Christian channel and then I changed the channel to find something better. I found Hope Channel and learned some things I never knew. I stopped going to church years ago because it was like reading the same book over and over again. Because of your shows, I now have renewed faith. The analytical Bible study of Cross Connection was valuable to me and gave me a better understanding of the Bible.

KANDUS THORP

Vice President of International Development

It was a television production marathon: three hundred programs in four weeks. A team of about forty set out in faith with the slogan “Let’s make it happen.” And I was humbled to watch how God was in control.

Project Hope is Hope Channel’s mobile production that began in 2007 and has successfully continued around the world. It helps jump-start new Hope Channel studios by mobilizing volunteers and creating 100 programs in a four-week period or less. Following this model, we launched an even bigger Project Hope this year in Papua New Guinea. This time, however, our goal was increased to 300 new programs, making it a true Mega Project Hope. Here’s how it all happened.

JANUARY 12. I woke up knowing that only God could make it a good day. I had to fly from Washington DC to Papua New Guinea via Los Angeles—with eight pieces of luggage packed with sensitive electronic equipment. I checked my luggage straight through to Papua New Guinea. But at the LA airport, there were problems with the luggage. So I prayed. And just as my name was called at the gate, a manager got involved and resolved the problem. Thank you, God. How amazing that you care for the smallest details!

JANUARY 14. Honiara, Solomon Islands was the last stopover. It was a tough landing, and something didn’t seem right. Sure enough, there were mechanical problems and we were stuck at the airport for ten hours. I prayed for patience to endure the heat after more than 30 hours of travel. Thank you, God, for your protection and traveling mercies.

JANUARY 15. We started building sets and repurposing two rooms as studios. To keep the equipment running smoothly, we need air conditioning; for air conditioning we need a generator. I’m glad Jack is here to help. A volunteer builder and handyman from Australia, Jack has helped Hope Channel set up studios in India and Africa.

Besides the eight pieces of luggage that came with me, a large shipment was sent ahead of time, but now it’s stuck in customs. That means we’re already behind schedule. Please, Lord, find us a solution for the air conditioning and release this freight!

PASTOR SOLOMON PRAYING WITH YURII SOSA (HOPE CHANNEL UKRAINE) AT A COMMUNION SERVICE

JANUARY 16. Our big need today was paint. In hindsight, I should have filled my suitcases with paint! It is so expensive here. It would have cost us over $1,000, but again I prayed. Lord, please find us paint. And He did! We located a batch of discarded paint for just $300. Mixing several colors together, we found shades that worked!

JANUARY 20. Our team of about 40 includes people from Papua New Guinea and other Hope Channel studios in Brazil, Romania, Ukraine, India, and the Philippines. Most of them were to arrive today, but the connecting flight was cancelled. What a blessing in disguise that was—since we had not yet set up the studio equipment. Keep all of us safe, Lord!

JANUARY 22. Everyone has arrived safely. Sets are beautiful. Teams have been organized, each with a leader. It's delightful to listen to the mix of languages in our international team! We're still praying for the release of the equipment and the generator.

JANUARY 23. Our project manager Ed and Pastor Andrew found a generator for rent at a great price. It's bigger and better than what we expected. Thank you, Lord! But we ran into a snag trying to switch 50MHz to 60MHz. Lord, please give us wisdom. We are now two days behind schedule.

JANUARY 25. After phone calls with the dealer in Japan, the problem with the voltage conversion is being sorted out. Can't wait for the air conditioner to work. It is impossible to tape anything indoors in this heat and humidity, so we started taping outdoors. We are now five days behind schedule.

JANUARY 28. The air conditioners were installed this morning, and we began taping in one studio. But no one came for the interview series in the other studio. Also there is a crisis in Port Moresby—the road from the refinery is blocked and there is no gas anywhere. Everyone involved in taping must travel. We are very discouraged. This is, by far, the worst day so far. Help us, Lord. How will we ever meet our huge faith goal of taping three hundred programs?

JANUARY 31. Gas stations are back in operation and our participants arrived. Thank you, God! And then, as if reflecting our gratitude of God's blessing, the rains began to pour—replacing scorching heat with cooling comfort. While the rains were just what we needed today, we don't want rain tomorrow or the day after. We have to tape some music videos outdoors and the forecast is calling for rain all week! God, I know you are in control of my today and my tomorrow.

THE PRODUCTION TEAM HAVING MORNING WORSHIP TOGETHER.

FEBRUARY 1. This morning I was blessed to be awakened by chirping birds. The sun was out; there was no sign of rain or clouds. Thank you again, Lord. Tonight we met two government ministers for dinner. We showed them a few video clips and discussed ways to get a broadcast license and national distribution for Hope Channel. They were thrilled to hear of our plans.

FEBRUARY 5. Pastor Andrew and one of the musicians composed a theme song for our time together (Listen to it here: hopetv.org/png). We sing it together every morning and share Bible promises. It is such a blessing to witness the spirituality of this group.

The postproduction room is humming with the Papua New Guinea crew learning new skills from video editors—who themselves were with little experience just a few years ago.

FEBRUARY 8. Today we had a very distinguished visitor, Honorable Deputy Chief Justice Sir Gibbs Salika, whose wife has been helping us behind the scenes. He wants to do a series of programs on religious freedom. Lord, thank you for the new series and for placing your people in such high government positions.

FEBRUARY 10. Today we “discovered” Ticko, a local cameraman. A man with a natural, creative talent for production, he has stepped up to be the host for a children’s series.

I am taking a break from this project for a few days to attend the inauguration of Hope Channel Malawi. So far we have taped 78 programs, and have a long way to go to reach our goal. Lord, watch over our production. Thank you for bringing us Ticko.

FEBRUARY 19. I returned to Papua New Guinea to find the team hard at work. We are almost at our goal of 300 programs!

FEBRUARY 20. The final production total is in: 303 programs taped, of which 245 are edited and ready for broadcast. (Trailer of programs here: hopetv.org/png) Truly a miracle! Everyone is exhausted but so happy. I praise you, Lord!

FEBRUARY 21. In spite of the daunting challenges and a slow start to our production, our team met the production goal. More importantly, the experience led to the discovery of talent and resources within Papua New Guinea that will sustain this television ministry. Thank you for an amazing team and an incredibly successful Mega Project Hope. To you, Lord, we give all the glory.

Heavenly Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thank you Father for the light You've shone through this television station. There needs to be more channels like Hope Channel to reach out to the world and touch the lives of millions, especially the lost souls who are desperately seeking liberation from the shackles of the devil. This world is in turmoil. The entertainment industry and media are promoting violence, drug use, sexual immorality, racism, misogyny, the destruction of the family, etc. I know this world, in its current state, is displeasing to Your character.

I myself have fallen victim to the demons of this world. I grew up in a Christian family but turned away from You and lived a worldly life. After living in the flesh for many years I realized that I was still empty in my soul. Lord, You've opened my eyes to the truth and one of the ways was through Hope Channel. Lord, forgive me for turning away from You and I ask You . . . no, I know that You've accepted me as your child. Even better, I've always been Your child; I was too blinded by the flesh to see that. Every time I cried out to You, in fact, You heard my cry. You listened to my heart and You've changed me, Lord.

I thank You infinitely. I owe You my life. This body will now be Your vessel to do Your will and touch others who are looking for You. I will be Your light to shine on others who are desperately seeking a way out, no matter what the situation. I will let them know that the God of loving kindness and mercy is waiting at their doorstep . . . just waiting for them to let Him in.

A Viewer's Prayer

Editor's Note: Hope Channel's Viewer Services Department often shares with the staff letters we receive. When this prayer from a viewer was read aloud, the room was filled with an overwhelming sense of the Holy Spirit at work and gratitude for being a part of Hope Channel's ministry.

Lord, change this world. Flow through every one of the seven to eight billion hearts so we can live in unity, true peace, and love. Bring virtue in broken homes. Teach us the true meaning of peace . . . the peace that comes from love. I ask of You today to change our culture into a righteous one.

And lastly, bless my fellow brothers and sisters at Hope Channel to continue the good fight. You said from the beginning that this world is our dominion and we should not take it for granted. It is our responsibility as Your children to create a world of peace, love, and prosperity.

In Jesus' name I pray,
Amen.

The Harvest is Truly Great

A report from Guyana

By Derek Morris, Host and Lead Teacher for Hope Sabbath School

Julie with her husband Volei and children Valeska and Matheus

God is working in miraculous ways in Guyana through the ministry of Hope Channel. While conducting a training program in Georgetown, Guyana I was blessed to meet many Hope Sabbath School members. There were two who especially touched my heart.

Valena sent me this email after the meetings:

“I was excited that you actually came to our beautiful Guyana. You make studying the Bible easy and enjoyable with Hope Sabbath School. Your spirit is light and you exude God’s love and wisdom. I am searching for a home church to raise my children. I admire the Adventist way of life and its simplicity, but I don’t know if I have the discipline to practice the Sabbath. I am praying about this issue of choosing a place to fellowship.

“I love the Lord with all my heart and He knows what I am searching for. I can’t explain the emotions I experienced while hearing you preach. I am happy that I had the opportunity to hear your sermon and I will never again take lightly the name of Jesus when I pray.

“Hope Sabbath School is a blessing to everyone. I pray that God continues to bless and keep you so that you can spread His Word throughout this world. Please pray that we choose the right church to ground and groom our family in the Word of God.”

After receiving this email, we began to pray for Valena in Jesus’ name. Within 24 hours, we received this response from her:

“God sure worked via express delivery this weekend. I talked to my husband about attending the Adventist Church close to our home. And this time he didn’t object. We attended an evening service. I know that God will work everything out.”

Julie grew up in with a Hindu mother and Catholic father. Her parents allowed her to make her own decision about what faith she would choose. When Julie met her husband and learned his family worshiped on the Sabbath, she began to read the Bible—starting with Genesis—to discover for herself if this was going to be her faith too. Soon she accepted that the Sabbath day is Saturday. The Lord also led her to Christian television programs. One of her favorites is Hope Sabbath School.

January 2013 Julie was baptized. On that day her husband was re-baptized too. She says, “Jesus brought truth to me in a graceful and loving way.” Julie and her husband rejoice in their commitment to God and pray every day that they will reflect Jesus to their children and everyone else they meet.

My life was blessed during my visit to Guyana. Please pray for God’s work there. The harvest truly is great. 🙏

Hope Channel Tanzania Secures Five-Year Broadcast License

The Tanzania Communications Regulatory Agency has granted Hope Channel Tanzania a five-year, renewable broadcast license.

This license will place Hope Channel Tanzania on Tanzania's national cable network that covers all twelve regions of Tanzania and reaches 50,000 homes. Additionally, the signal is strong enough to be received in 11 surrounding countries.

Hope Channel Tanzania began as Morning Star Television in 2014 with test broadcasts under just a studio construction license. However, financial, logistical, and regulatory barriers limited its reach to a confined local region. "Not long ago this was an impossible feat," says Mazara Edwards, Studio Manager of Hope Channel Tanzania. "This miracle has happened because God wants to use Hope Channel to change lives."

With just four employees and some volunteers, Hope Channel Tanzania now broadcasts 24/7 with 60 percent of its programming taken from the Hope Channel International feed and 40 percent produced locally.

Strong partnerships with area churches enable Hope Channel Tanzania to also live stream events. An example of this is a recent series of meetings conducted by Geoffrey Mbwana, Vice President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The daily meetings were attended by about 750 people every evening, and streamed live to about another 20,000 in 300 churches and homes across the country.

On the Sabbath following the meeting, thousands gathered by the Indian Ocean as 2,309 people were baptized. 🙏

A Charitable Gift Annuity

to help you and your children ... and Hope Channel

Jim was a hard working farmer and a careful saver. But for many years he watched the rate of return on his bank CDs plummet. He needed a better return to provide an income for his four children after his demise.

One day he saw me on Hope Channel talking about the benefits of a Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA). Jim called me because the CGA would do exactly what he wanted.

A CGA is a contract in which you exchange a gift of cash or securities for a generous, fixed income each year of your life (or the lives of two people). A CGA is an extraordinary way to support Hope Channel's successful global ministry, while increasing your income and slicing your tax bill—all in one transaction.

I helped Jim set up five CGAs. Based on his age at the time, his CGA paid him 8.8 percent. The other four paid an average of 5.7 percent—first to Jim, then to his children—a much better income than the matured CD he used to fund the annuities. He was also pleased that a generous portion of his pay out was income tax free.

Jim, and ultimately his children, received fixed payments from the CGAs that were significantly more than he was receiving from his bank CD. Jim was pleased that the CGAs provided more income for himself, an income for his children ... and a generous gift for Hope Channel.
