HARVEST

IT'S HARVEST TIME

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

One of the saddest cries in the Scriptures is recorded by the prophet Jeremiah: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved!" (Jeremiah 8:20 NKJV). What a tragic declaration! Our loving Creator and Redeemer does not desire any of His children to utter that hopeless cry. The apostle Peter assures us that the LORD is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9 NKJV). That's why followers of Jesus have an urgent work to perform in the power of the Holy Spirit just before the glorious return of Jesus. It's harvest time!

Jesus assured the disciples, and He assures us today, that "the harvest truly is great!" (Luke 10:2 NKJV). A vast multitude of men and women, boys and girls, are just waiting for the invitation to be gathered into His eternal kingdom. The apostles witnessed a great harvest on the Day of Pentecost. Simon Peter and the other apostles preached in the power of the Holy Spirit, and three thousand souls repented of their sins, were baptized as a confession of their faith in Jesus as their personal Savior and were added to His church (Acts 2:41-47).

Seeds of truth had been sown during the ministry of Jesus and now it was harvest time!

A few months ago, we witnessed another Pentecost harvest. From June 5-26, 2021, Pastor Mark Malekana held evangelistic meetings in the Kizota Seventh-day Adventist Church in Dodoma, Tanzania. Each powerful Bible message was preceded by relevant health and family life presentations, providing practical counsel for the troubled days in which we live. These evangelistic meetings, entitled Shangwe katika Njia Yake (Joy in His Way), were broadcasted by Hope Channel Tanzania to more than 3,000 locations across the country. Would you like to guess how many precious souls were gathered during this harvest time? Ten times the number baptized on the Day of Pentecost. So far, 29,950 have confessed their love for Jesus as their Savior and Lord through baptism. We can almost hear the angels singing: "It's harvest time!"

Similar miracles are being witnessed around the world. However, we do not always immediately see the great harvest that Jesus promised.

For example, the disciples saw no harvest in Samaria during the ministry of Jesus. They were totally oblivious to the fact that it was harvest time there. When Jesus came to Jacob's Well on the outskirts of Sychar, only one person showed up for the meeting, so the disciples went into the town to buy food. When the disciples returned with their lunch, Jesus rebuked them with these words: "Do you not say, 'There are four months and then comes the harvest?' Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for the harvest!" (John 4:35 NKJV).

We don't even know the name of the Samaritan woman who met with Jesus that day, but the apostle John clearly testifies that her life was transformed through a personal encounter with the Savior (John 4:5-29). For her, it was harvest time. Though it wasn't clearly visible at first, it was also harvest time in the city of Sychar. As a result of this one woman's conversion, the whole city of Sychar was impacted: "Many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of that woman" (John 4:39 NKJV), and many more believed when they had a personal encounter with Jesus themselves. "We ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world" (John 4:42 NKJV). I have no doubt that Jesus looked back as he left Sychar and said, "The harvest truly is great!"

In the midst of this global pandemic, it has become increasingly clear to us that it's harvest time. We have seen more viewers searching for hope than ever before, more seekers of truth requesting Bible studies than ever before, and more people requesting baptism than ever before. It's harvest time, and the harvest truly is great.

Here is just one example of a Hope Channel viewer who is part of God's great harvest:

Gabriela writes from Poland: "Since my baptism, something wonderful has happened in my life. My faith has become stronger and stronger. Our heavenly Father has been healing my heart. I'm finally healed from depression! He is teaching me how to forgive people, even my father. I don't have any scars in my heart anymore. Happiness and God's love fill me fully—it's incredible because I've never felt something like this before! Every day I wake up early to spend time with my greatest Friend!"

Soon Jesus will return in glory to gather the redeemed into His eternal kingdom. Until that glorious day, we have a sacred mission to perform. Thank you for your prayers, donations, and active support as we join the Lord of the Harvest in His harvest work.

Hope Sabbath School isn't only an in-depth, interactive study of the Word of God, but an interactive space for our viewers to share their thoughts with us. Every week, we ask a question on social media related to that week's lesson and the responses we receive are not only inspiring, but take the lessons to even greater depth and life.

Question: When did you come to realize the commandments of the Lord are a blessing rather than a burden?

"A relationship requires agreement and harmony. Because God is not only the Creator of the world but also its moral Governor, law is essential for the happiness of His created, intelligent beings to live in harmony with Him. His law, the expression of His will, is thus the constitution of His government. It is naturally the norm or obligation of the covenant arrangement and relationship. Its purpose is not to save, but to define our duty to God (commandments 1-4) and our duty to our fellow humans (commandments 5-10). In other words, it sets forth the manner of life that God designs for His covenant children to live, for their own happiness and well-being. It prevented Israel from substituting some other philosophy as a way of life. It was and is the purpose of the covenant relationship to bring the believer through God's transforming grace into harmony with His will and character." - Desalegn D.

"When I looked at them to see where the burden was, I could not find one that was a burden. Every one of them expresses how to love - Love for God, Love for your fellow human beings." - Wilma S.

"When I started keeping them! What a difference it has made walking the walk and not just talking the talk!" - Andrea N.

"When I saw they are there to keep people from hurting each other and to instead walk in love." - Deanna

"Isaiah 48:18 'If only you had listened to my commands! Then blessings would have flowed for you like a stream that never goes dry! Victory would have come to you like the waves that roll on the shore.'" - Peris O.

"I have known that the 10 commandments were important in Scripture, and in our daily lives, as they show us what sin is." - Dorothy M.

"Since I accepted Jesus as my personal Savior." - Leenah N.

INSIDE HOPE CHANNEL

BY SARAH FONSECA

I cried out to God like never before. I was driving to work as I did every day—but this morning was different. I had reached my limit. I was defeated, and, more than ever, I needed God's help.

At the time, I was working as an office manager at a busy doctor's office. It was a great opportunity that came with many responsibilities. Besides running the practice, I spent most days "putting out fires"—whether it was tending to an employee's crisis, fixing problems, or calming an angry patient. My days were hectic and stressful, to say the least.

But what really made my job exhausting was my long commute. My husband and I had been blessed to be able to purchase our first home—the only problem was it was 30 miles from my office and at least a 90-minute drive during rush-hour traffic.

Shortly after we moved into our new home, the Lord continued to bless us, and I became pregnant. As excited as I was to become a mother, I couldn't help but worry that this hectic schedule would have a negative impact on my pregnancy.

I convinced myself I could overcome the challenges and make it work, but as my belly grew, so did my problems. The days were getting longer and more demanding. I was being pulled in every direction, and, as a result, I was putting the health of my pregnancy in jeopardy.

That morning, as I sat in my car—stuck in traffic—I realized this could not continue. I was burned out and weak. I didn't know what to do but to surrender everything to God. With tears, I prayed for God to provide a way out of this toxic situation—if not for me, for my baby.

When I finally arrived at work that morning, I received a phone call as I was walking into my office. It was from the human resources department of Hope Channel. They had received my résumé and wanted to bring me in for an interview.

God heard my cry and answered my prayer. In my weakest moment, God called me to serve in His ministry.

It has been almost two years since I joined Hope Channel International, and to say it has been a blessing in my life is an understatement. My daunting commute has been replaced with a quick, 10-minute drive. My once-stressful work days are now filled with God's peace. Most importantly, I thank God that I gave birth to a beautiful, healthy baby girl.

Working as a fundraising coordinator, I get to assist in many facets of fundraising, from assisting in donations and writing fundraising material to interacting with donors and sharing stories of lives that have been transformed by God through our ministry.

Donors are the lifeline of this ministry. Without them, Hope Channel would not exist. As restrictions begin to lift, I am excited to be able to meet our donors in person and to personally thank them for not only changing my life, but also changing thousands of lives around the world.

Heroes II Makes a Global Impact

By Maharani Lumban-Gaol

Everyone involved with the creation of Heroes II waited with bated breath as March 25 approached. The clock hit twelve midnight and just like that, the highly-anticipated game launched into the world. Players familiar with the previous game were excitedly welcomed with a vibrant, modern look filled with more features and trivia questions. Within just a few months, more than 200 different countries or regions downloaded the game. “The world has 2.7 billion gamers. This is a mission field of epic proportions. Just to give you an idea, 2.7 billion is, roughly, one-third of the world’s population,” Pastor Sam Neves, creator of Heroes II, emphatically remarks. “Ironically, this gigantic mission field fits in the palm of your hand. It’s your smartphone! There are 4.7 billion mobile phones in use in the world today. Just imagine what could happen if every mobile phone user received the Gospel of Christ Jesus exactly where they were. This is why we created Heroes II.”

The numbers and reports are already proving this effort to be true. The average amount of time users are playing Heroes

II is 6 minutes and 18 seconds, with an estimated total of one million minutes played so far! Furthermore, Heroes II social media accounts like Facebook and Instagram, are followed by users predominantly between the ages of 25-34 years old. It is exciting to see how this age group aligns closely with the game’s mission to reach young people in creative ways. This is evident with the surplus of testimonials that have flooded in from around the world. Let’s dive into some of the amazing stories!

Ana Batista

Ana Batista is an adolescent leader in the Church of Christ Emmanuel in Paulo Afonso, in northern Bahia. She discovered the Portuguese translation of the game and immediately fell in love with it, playing the game with her 14-year-old girl, Anabel. They are not Seventh-day Adventists. But through this Bible-based resource, our prayerful hope is that it will lead them into the truth. “Congratulations on the excellent initiative,” she shared. “So relevant in these strange times of staying at home and social isolation. I intend to gather our teens in person to install the game on our smartphones and start this journey, studying the Word in a playful way and in their language!” (Translated from original language).

Vinicius Cavalcante

According to a 2020 report by Statista, 21 percent of video gamers in the United States are under 18 years old (Clement, 2021). Furthermore, “11.6 percent of respondents in the U.S. admitted to playing video games for more than 20 hours a week, while another 11.4 percent claimed to spend between 12 and 20 hours a week gaming” (Clement, 2021). With that much time spent on gaming, it is important for one to lead people to Jesus. Vinicius Cavalcante, a 14-year-old from Brazil, discovered the game through Hope Channel Novo Tempo. Ever since he was introduced to it, he has been a supportive, daily user of the game. He loves the “fun and didactic format of the game” and because of it, has learned about various Bible characters he didn’t know before.

Brazilian Northern Union

The União Nordeste Brasileira (Brazilian Northern Union) in partnership with Adventist Education and Hope Channel Novo Tempo organized an online week of prayer for a total of 3,600 students. During the event, students had the opportunity to play the game. Only positive feedback was heard from teachers and students. At the end of the event, 217 students began the Heroes Bible Study course.

Adventist Global Campmeeting

Two months after the release of the game, the first ever Virtual Adventist Global Camp Meeting took place and Heroes II was shared at even greater lengths through the Bible Heroes Championship game that took place during the event. It was incredible to not only see countless young people participate, but see their breadth of knowledge in Bible stories and heroes.

One of them was a 14-year-old boy from the United Kingdom who almost made it to the finals. He later shared how he does not attend church, but has studied on his own and knows the stories well. Later, he sent a message to the Heroes II Instagram account sharing how he started reading the Bible, so that he could answer the questions and get a higher score.

“I was reading the story of David. I felt inspired thanks to you guys and as I read the story of David I’m starting to like him and look up to him, no wonder he was a hero,” he shared in his message. “How can I love God in the same way David did? And how can I show love and forgiveness and care the same way David did? I’m amazed because Saul tried to pin David to the wall, and kill David in his own house. And yet when David had the chance to get even with Saul he chose not to kill him, and when Saul died David didn’t rejoice; he cried and fasted and was truly broken for Saul and Jonathan. So how do I develop a character like the hero David? How can I love God with all my heart and love my enemies? Now that I think of it, I read the entire book of John, Revelation, Acts, Esther, Ruth because of this game... a game that leads young people to read the Bible, I would have never come up with that.” It was inspiring to hear such a testimony. This is just one of many others like it.

The first-ever champion at the Heroes II Bible Trivia Game World Championship was another 14-year-old! Ian, from Lopez, Quezon, Philippines, won the best-of-three series in the final. He grew up in a spiritually-invigorating home and education system where he read the Bible, Spirit of Prophecy, and other Adventist literature. Reflecting after the championship, he remarked, “Heroes II is not just a game, but it is a tool designed to reach millions of young people. It is an app carefully designed to make its contents, interface, and objective closest to the Bible.” Both of these 14-year-olds proved that young people are eager to learn Bible truths and are never too young to understand.

Brunna Eduarda

Brunna Eduarda was in her early 20s in Manaus, Amazonas, when she played Heroes I. Now, as a 30-year old teaching in a children’s class at her local Pathfinders Club, she plays Heroes II. “I like Heroes II because it doesn’t claim to be a purely competitive game. I enjoy the gameplay and the fact that it’s simple to understand,” she says.

She shared that her favorite character is Ruth. “We were cut off from the glory and presence of God, sin left us in this condition, Jesus came and acted as our rescuer, making us part of his family. In Ruth I feel represented, I feel that the rescue made to her, extends to me, that’s why she is my favorite,” Brunna says.

Because she has been so blessed by the game, she can’t help but share it with her family and friends. Prior to the game’s release, she advertised the game through social media, making the people in her sphere of influence aware of it. “For me it’s an immense joy to talk about the game, talk about the technology behind it and participate in this movement,” she says enthusiastically. Every Saturday afternoon, she joins her Pathfinder Club Bible class and they play together.

She is also currently enrolled in Lesson 8 of the Heroes II Bible Study course, “The Big Questions,” and appreciates the emphasis of using online resources to share the message of love and truth. “The Big Questions” is a series of interactive Bible studies for those who want to dive deeper. In these series, the Bible heroes themselves answer challenging questions like, “What happens when you die?”, “is God real?”, “if God is good, why do we suffer?” and many other tough questions. The series is available on Hope.Study and the platform includes a team ready to provide pastoral support and prayer 24/7.

Videos of Pastor Sam explaining the dynamics and importance of the game moved and touched Brunna deeply. For her, Heroes II is more than just a game. “It’s a channel that introduces Jesus to other people, but it keeps me close to Him too, and it brought hope and joy into my life when I was just beginning to see a gray life.”

Heroes II is a game that points young people to the Bible. It caters to the needs of the younger generation, while introducing them to Jesus. Spending time reading the Word and having that as the center of their thoughts is the goal, and this trivia game is a gateway to achieve just that.

Download the game for free at HeroesBibleTrivia.org and start playing today! Be sure to also enroll in the free Heroes Bible Study courses at Hope.Study.

Help Wanted!

Sarah Fonseca, fundraising coordinator

Jesus said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest” (Matthew 9:37-38, ESV).

Every day, Hope Channel shares everlasting hope with thousands of people in 200 countries and in 90 languages—but we can’t do it without you! There is so much more to be done, and we need your help. You have been called by the Lord of the Harvest to go out into His harvest field and work for His glory.

Your support of the Hope Channel ministry allows us to use Bible-based media to share God’s love and salvation with a harvest of hurting people. Patricia, a viewer from Hawaii, is part of this great harvest.

Patricia was baptized at the young age of seven. God was present in her life, but she didn’t feel His love for her. Because of this, she didn’t know how to follow God; nevertheless, she still believed in Him.

As she grew older, she grew further away from church. But God never left her side, and she never stopped believing in Him.

When she married and became a mother, she recommitted herself to God, but something didn’t feel right. Something was missing: she didn’t know God’s truth. So she began to seek God’s word.

When the pandemic began and tragic events took place in 2020, it took an emotional toll on Patricia. She began to question her church and whether they were truly living God’s truth.

As she began to study the Bible, God used Hope Sabbath School to bless Patricia’s life and help her understand Bible truths. The more she watched Hope Sabbath School, the more she listened and learned God’s Word. She began to feel God leading in her life.

Disappointed by her church and many other evangelical churches on their stance on the world’s problems, she began to feel a strong conviction—especially about the Sabbath.

She remembered watching a Hope Sabbath School lesson about not testing God but instead asking for a sign. Patricia needed a sign from God to know that He was with her on this journey.

She prayed and cried out to God, “If You are really with me, will You show me?” The Holy Spirit impressed her to ask God for her estranged son to call her that day. She was afraid to ask for such an impossible sign, but she did anyway.

Later that morning she received a phone call—it was from her son. God made the impossible possible. When Patricia recalls that miraculous morning, tears of joy stream down her face.

God’s truth was revealed to Patricia. “Now that the Lord has shown me His truth,” she writes, “I want to demonstrate my faith in Him, because I love Him and want to follow Him all the days of my life.”

Amazingly, the pandemic and the sad events and emotional anguish of the past year have all pushed Patricia closer to God. She is so grateful, because she knows these tragedies could have pushed her the other way. “Through His amazing grace, He has walked with me and used His word and Hope Channel to help keep my feet on solid ground,” she writes.

As Patricia continued her faith journey, she wanted to find a Christian community that taught Biblical truths and honored the Sabbath. She reached out to Hope Channel to connect her to a local church.

Hope Channel connected Patricia to a church that not only was nearby, but also happened to be the church where Puia, one of the Hope Sabbath School team members, recently became a pastor.

God was working through Patricia’s life all along. “I get so emotional because God did all of this for me,” says Patricia. God’s immeasurable and unfailing love made her whole.

Patricia sought God with all her heart, and her life was transformed. Thanks to the compassionate support of our donors, Hope Channel and Hope Sabbath School helped Patricia find what she was searching for—God’s truth and love.

Transformational stories, like Patricia’s, would not be possible without your continued support.

Your gift to Hope Channel will enable life-changing programs like Hope Sabbath School, Let’s Pray, InVerse, Bible HelpDesk, and many more to continue reaching people who are seeking God’s truth.

There is a harvest of souls ready for salvation. Please earnestly pray for our ministry and for God to send more laborers.

DAY OF Hope

By Maharani Lumban-Gaol

“For those of us in ministry, the question remains--how can we move forward with the mission? How will God use us in this time?” - President Derek Morris in the first ever Day of Hope on December 15, 2020.

After a year full of uncertainty, grief, and seemingly insurmountable challenges due to the pandemic, people needed to experience just what the name entails--a day of hope. In fact, the top online searches all started with the word, "Why." More than ever, people are searching for answers and are yearning for comfort and peace. Now imagine that during their search for answers, Hope Channel pops up and they discover programs that answer their questions and reveal Bible truths that change their lives forever! That is exactly what viewers experienced during the program--stories of lives transformed through Hope Channel programming. “Day of Hope is a broadcast where Hope Channel shares with viewers the impact it is making around the world for Christ,” says Ronnie Mills, director of fundraising. “And viewers get the opportunity to join and financially support this powerful and positive impact movement.”

In reflecting on the collective physical, mental, spiritual, and even financial struggles intensified by the pandemic, the theme chosen was Restoration, as a reminder that God is the ultimate Healer and Restorer. According to Merriam-Webster, Restoration is the “act of returning to a former or original condition.” Throughout the Bible, we see a God who wants to restore us back to Him. Our hearts long for this. It says in Psalm 51:12 KJV, “Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.” Day of Hope pointed to this theme throughout all aspects of the program--through the uplifting music, inspiring messages, miraculous testimonies, and exciting updates.

Musical guests included artists David Griffiths, Matt and Josie Minikus, Alessandra Sorace, Fountainview Academy, and Denise Barclay. Speakers included Chaplain Barry Black, Chris Holland, Jose A. Barrientos Jr., Michael Goetz, and Sam Neves to name a few. Between performances and messages, various Hope Channel department heads shared thrilling updates. Vyacheslav Demyan, vice president of programming, shared that “just three days before the pandemic hit, [Hope Channel] created the new department of digital distribution to create programming in the digital space allowing us to fully embrace digital evangelism.” God evidently showed his divine timing and guidance because what grew out of this team were dynamic programs like Hope at Home, Small Talk, Big God, Hope Talks, and Wake Up with Hope. These programs were a source of comfort for viewers who had to stay home during the pandemic and they continue to be a source of blessing for viewers till this day. Joe Sloan, director of international development, shared exciting updates from our global networks like Hope Channel India, who plan to broadcast in 50 languages by 2025! Viewers continued to be encouraged throughout the program as updates like these were shared.

Your support is what is needed to continue Bible-based programming and fulfill our mission of transforming lives through media. Derek Morris shared the story of the paralytic man whose friends carried him through the roof to meet Jesus and be restored. “They couldn’t do the restoration themselves, but they were willing to sacrifice and I’m just so thankful for our partners as part of our global evangelistic media ministry who are saying ‘I’m willing to ‘carry the stretcher.’ I’m willing to tell someone about the programming on Hope Channel so that we can get them to Jesus and they can experience Restoration.” The amount of viewers who responded to “carry the stretcher” for someone else through financial means was astounding.

On the very first Day of Hope, the giving goal was $300,000, a goal that at first glance appeared overreaching. But with God, we knew anything was possible and that was exactly what happened. By the end of the program, the goal was surpassed with a total of $313,159! There is great joy when we get to work alongside the Lord to complete the work of sharing the gospel through the power of media.

What made it even more special is “when Pastor Derek [called and thanked] various donors for their support of Hope Channel. It [provided] an opportunity to publicly express our deep appreciation for our supporters,” said Ronnie Mills. This was definitely a highlight of the program as it personalized our supporters, and made the relationship and impact more tangible. Read some of the warm responses we received during the broadcast:

"I truly believe that Hope Channel fulfills the Great Commission that Jesus gave us to take the gospel to the whole world. We know Jesus is coming soon." - Rodolfo Feijoo

"Our donation can go to places I cannot go." - Doris Mago

"I love the programming...it is Christ-centered...it helps us find ways to incorporate the gospel into all phases of life." - Gloria Westney

"The more I donate, the sooner I can go home...to heaven!" - Daniel Mago

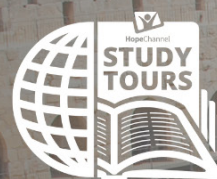

"God is working in the lives of people all over the world. We're blessed each week...we felt we wanted to do our part in your ministry with a monthly donation." - Glen Hughes

"We believe in the mission Hope Channel has. We hear the stories on Transformed and other opportunities of lives actually changed." - Bob & Ann

"Nothing gives me greater joy than to see people grow in Jesus and to learn more about His love for them and to know they have an eternal life, eternal future... It's just overwhelming the satisfaction of helping enlarge God's kingdom." - Judy Lechleitner

It is with great humility and anticipation to see how God will surpass our human expectations at the upcoming Day of Hope live broadcast and to hear directly from more supporters the impact Hope Channel has had on them. Join the Impact Movement at the next Day of Hope on Sunday, December 5, 2021. Don't miss it!

What inspired you both to be involved with Wake Up with Hope?

Christian/Heidi: Throughout our years in ministry, we have always been open to God's leading and willing to serve in whatever way He chooses. Every opportunity we have to provide the hope we have in Christ in any setting is always a privilege. So when our names were proposed by a friend, leading to an invitation to be hosts, we were excited for this unique opportunity to serve together in media ministry for the first time.

What is your favorite part of the program?

Christian: I always look forward to the devotional messages. When you have speakers from ministries such as It is Written, Breath of Life, Voice of Prophecy, Faith for Today and Jesus 101, you know it's going to be Christ-centered and biblical.

Heidi: I greatly enjoy the health segment! And as a pianist myself, I'm always blessed with the musical segments and enjoy the blessing of hearing beautiful and inspiring music.

What excites you the most about this?

Christian: I really get excited when I see the global impact that Wake Up with Hope is making. To think that we are reaching viewers from Pakistan, Papua New Guinea, Dubai, Botswana and dozens of other countries. What a tremendous opportunity to share good news and hope to every nation, tribe, tongue and people as we read about in the book of Revelation!

Heidi: What excites me the most is being about to share the joy that Jesus brings into our lives first thing in the morning.

What do you hope viewers receive after watching this program? Why do you think this daily, morning show is needed?

Christian: My hope is that viewers will be spiritually energized, filled with an excitement that comes when one hears the good news of Jesus Christ. I believe there's enough rich content during the half hour of programming to keep you mindful of Jesus throughout the whole day!

Heidi: I pray that viewers will come away from watching Wake Up with Hope with a personal desire to have a stronger relationship with Jesus because they have heard how much He loves them.

Have there been any testimonies or responses you've received so far?

Christian/Heidi: A friend of ours shared with us that Wake Up With Hope is now her new favorite show on Hope Channel and she looks forward to watching each new episode. It has given her a fresh new way to start each day!
