The Floor is Lava

Instructions: In a space where children can walk or run around, when you call out “The floor is lava”, everyone has 5 seconds to get to somewhere safe, which means no part of their body is touching the ground. Anyone still on the floor is “out” and can’t join the game for a period of time.

The Lesson –

1. Ask: What was it like trying to find a place away from the “lava”?

Say: The Bible tells us to run far away from things that tempt us.

Read 2 Timothy 2:22.

2. Ask: What are some things that tempt kids your age? In our game, what were some safe places to get away from the lava?

Say: That verse tells us where to go to get safe from temptation. It says to pursue righteous living, faithfulness, love, and peace. Those are like the chairs, tables, or wherever else we went to escape from the lava.

3. Ask: Was there ever a point in our game where you didn’t think you’d be able to get off the floor in time?

Say: Sometimes temptation can feel like that—it’s too hard to get away!

But God makes a promise about that.

Read 1 Corinthians 10:13.

Say: The next time you’re tempted, remember that the floor is lava! Run and look for an escape from the temptation. God promises to give you one!
